

Love on the Brain is a heartfelt Pop Rock love song inspired by my own journey of long-distance love. It tells the story of being miles apart, dreaming about the day we'd finally meet, and discovering that love can overcome distance, doubt, and time. Sometimes love is on your mind long before you realize it's in your heart.