

“My Melted Heart” is a heartfelt poem about the comfort, happiness, and support that comes from loving someone special. It expresses appreciation for having that person in your life and the hope of building a future together.