One in a Million

[Intro]

You’re one in a million
You’re one in a million
Oh, one in a millionnnn

[Verse 1]

I started my own rumors
That spread around the school like wildfire
I wanted the attention
I wanted to feel loved
And I didn't care how I got it

I didn't know how to trust
I didn't know how to commit
I told them that I loved them
When I didn't know what love meant

[Pre-Chorus]

Then you broke down the walls
That I built around my heart
You taught my heart to trust
And gave me a reason to finally fall

[Chorus]

You gave me a reason to believe
Love could be more than I ever dreamed
I never knew love could feel this way
You turned my doubts into hope
And my fears into faith
You're one in a million
And you're changing what love means to me
You’re changing what love means to me

[Verse 2]

I thought I had to compete with your past
With the life you lived before me
I didn't have the experience you had
So I thought I had something to prove
Just to know that you would choose me
Just to know that I was enough

But you gave my heart
Somewhere safe to land
You waited until I was ready
To finally say, "I love you"

[Pre-Chorus]

Then you broke down the walls
That I built around my heart
You taught my heart to trust
And gave me a reason to finally fall

[Chorus]

You gave me a reason to believe
Love could be more than I ever dreamed
I never knew love could feel this way
You turned my doubts into hope
And my fears into faith
You're one in a million
And you're changing what love means to me
You’re changing what love means to me

[Bridge]

I thought love was a competition
Something I had to win
I thought I had to prove myself
For you to choose me in the end

But love was never a competition
And I never had to pretend
I'm still learning what love means
Every day I spend with you

[Pre-Chorus]

Then you broke down the walls
That I built around my heart
You taught my heart to trust
And gave me a reason to finally fall

[Chorus]

You gave me a reason to believe
Love could be more than I ever dreamed
I never knew love could feel this way
You turned my doubts into hope
And my fears into faith
You're one in a million
And you're changing what love means to me
You’re changing what love means to me

[Final Chorus]

You gave me something real
When I was confused about how I feel
I never knew love could feel this way
You turned my doubts into hope
And my fears into faith
Every day you show me something new
And encourage me to follow my dreams
I'm still learning what love means
And you're changing what love means to me
You're one in a million (x4)

[Guitar Solo]

You’re changing what love means to meeeeeee
