Love on the Brain

[Intro Long guitar Solo]

[Verse 1]

When we were miles apart
We shared how much we cared
By sharing texts back and forth
I dreamed about the day that we'd finally meet
Wondering what it would feel like with you next to me

[Pre-Chorus]

Everything I'd dreamed about
Was happening right in front of me
You moved my walker aside
Then wrapped your arms around me
You picked me up and kissed me
You were no longer just a dream

[Chorus]

I finally know what it's like
To have love on the brain
Every morning, every night
My thoughts keep calling your name
With an ocean between us
Your heart still led you to me
I finally know what it's like
To have love on the brain

[Guitar Solo]

To have love on the brain

[Guitar Solo]

To have love on the brain

[Guitar Solo]

[Verse 2]

Then one day you told me
That you dreamed about being with me

And when the countdown began
My heart started racing
Then I saw you in my friend's car
I knew I'd never forget that day
When you moved my walker aside
Picked me up and kissed me

[Pre-Chorus]

Everything I'd dreamed about
Was happening right in front of me
You moved my walker aside
Then wrapped your arms around me
You picked me up and kissed me
You were no longer just a dream

[Chorus]

I finally know what it's like
To have love on the brain
Every morning, every night
My thoughts keep calling your name
With an ocean between us
Your heart still led you to me
I finally know what it's like
To have love on the brain

[Guitar Solo]

To have love on the brain

[Guitar Solo]

To have love on the brain

[Guitar Solo]

[Bridge]

Looking back on our conversations
Reminds me why I love you
I finally understand
What it feels like to have love on the brain

[Pre-Chorus]

Everything I'd dreamed about
Was happening right in front of me
You moved my walker aside
Then wrapped your arms around me
You picked me up and kissed me
You were no longer just a dream

[Chorus]

I finally know what it's like
To have love on the brain
Every morning, every night
My thoughts keep calling your name
With an ocean between us
Your heart still led you to me
I finally know what it's like
To have love on the brain To have love on the brain

[Guitar Solo]

To have love on the brain

[Guitar Solo]

To have love on the brain

[Guitar Solo]

[Final Chorus]

I finally know what love on the brain
Feels like after all this time
You followed your heart across the ocean
And somehow it led you to mine
I didn't know what your intentions were
But your love made you stay
I guess you had love on the brain
When you came all this way

I finally know what love on the brain
Feels like when I look at you
From oceans apart to eight years later
I guess you felt it too

[Guitar Solo]

[outro]

I finally know what it's like to have love on the brain
