Second Choice

[Verse 1]

For years, I’ve watched promises get broken

You taught me not to expect too much

I treasured every moment you stayed

Knowing it would never last

[Pre-Chorus]

I've convinced myself that this time was different

But then you stomped on my heart like glass

I've convinced myself to keep on trying

But if you don't want to be in my life

Then you can walk out the door

With no turning back

[Chorus]

I should be used to it by now

Second choice is all I've known

I was always your afterthought

Never your number one

I was always the one who stayed

While you were the one who left

[Guitar Solo]

While you were the one who left

[Guitar solo]

While you were the one who left

[Verse 2]

Listening to your excuses one by one

Made me pretend that it didn’t hurt

Every reason, every goodbye

Made me swallow all the pain

And tell myself I’m fine

I learned your absence

Wouldn’t define my worth

[Pre-Chorus]

I've convinced myself that this time was different

But then you stomped on my heart like glass

I've convinced myself to keep on trying

But if you don't want to be in my life

Then you can walk out the door

With no turning back

[Chorus]

I should be used to it by now

Second choice is all I've known

I was always your afterthought

Never your number one

I was always the one who stayed

While you were the one who left

[Guitar Solo]

While you were the one who left

[Guitar solo]

While you were the one who left

[Bridge]

Was I ever enough?

Did you ever see me?

Your choices never defined my worth

I’m done waiting to be chosen

[Final Chorus]

I should be used to it by now

Second choice is all I’ve known

I was always your afterthought

Never your number one

So I won’t keep waiting anymore

For someone who won’t choose me

[Outro]

Your choices never defined my worth

I’m done waiting to be chosen
