Education

Creative Writing Bachelor of Fine Art

Full Sail University, Winter Park, FL

May 2025

I met someone in a creative Writing group from Facebook and Facebook Messenger, in that messenger chat, I asked everyone there who got their degree in creative writing? Out of everyone in that group, someone told me she got a creative writing degree at Full Sail University. I did not know that it was an entertainment school until I spoke with admissions and that's when I decided to take my disability advocacy to the next level, which meant that I would want to bring disability awareness into the entertainment and writing industry.

Academic Experience

Creative Writing Bachelor of Fine Art Coursework Projects

Full Sail University, Winter Park, FL

- For my Project and Portfolio 3 and on, I decided to make a website for my brand "Jhana's Writing Journey."
- In the publishing and Distribution class, I was tasked to put all of my flash fiction together so I could make an eBook on draft2digital.

Work Experience

Writer

June 2024 - Present

Freelance Writer Jhana's Writing Journey, Kailua-Kona, HI

- I created Jhana's Writing Journey because I wanted something that represented what I do. I had two other names before Jhana's Writing Journey, but they did not fit with what I wanted to do or accomplish.
- I've published a book called, "Finding Acceptance," on draft2digital. I also write for a website called Unwritten.
- My goal with Jhana's Writing Journey is to help people understand that they matter regardless of their disability. And I want them to know that it is okay to be who they are, not what other people want them to be.
